Landscape Awards for Hoffman Landscapes

Wilton-based Hoffman Landscapes won 2 landscape awards of Excellence from the National Association of Landscape Professionals for its work on residential properties in Southport and Westport. The firm is owned by Michael Hoffman.

The organization cited Hoffman's Rick King for his restoration of a Westport garden destroyed in Hurricane Sandy, and Matthew Biron for his use of a wraparound porch at a Southport home as the basis for an entertainment center with a swimming pool and outdoor room with a fireplace.

The National Association of Landscape Professionals represents an industry of nearly 1 million landscape, lawn care, irrigation and tree care experts who create and maintain green spaces for the benefit of society and the environment. The Landscape Awards of Excellence recognize exceptional work in the landscape industry.

Hoffman Landscapes' award-winning team has been recognized many times for outstanding landscape design and maintenance during its 30 years in business. The company specializes in landscape architecture and outdoor construction as well as complete property management for lawns, planting beds, gardens, trees and shrubs. Hoffman Landscapes has two Connecticut locations in Wilton and Greenwich, serving Fairfield, Westchester and Litchfield counties.
