Their staff is well educated, award winning and highly experienced in landscape design and year-round property maintenance.

plants. For complex projects, they can put together the best team of landscape architects, designers, horticulturists, and craftsmen to ensure the highest standards are achieved.

Maintaining your investment is a high priority at Hoffman, which is why many of their clients employ the "Hoffman Total Approach" for year-round services such as lawn maintenance, seasonal clean ups, and snow removal.
